

HKBAC awarded "Privacy-Friendly Awards 2021" Gold Certificate

The Hong Kong Business Aviation Centre (HKBAC) is pleased to announce that they have been awarded the Gold Certificate in the inaugural Privacy-Friendly Awards 2021 presented by the Office of the Privacy Commissioner for Personal Data (PCPD) on 4 March 2021, recognising HKBAC's efforts in protecting personal data privacy.

To mark its 25th anniversary, the PCPD introduced the "Privacy-Friendly Awards" this year to encourage public and private sector entities in Hong Kong to embrace the protection of personal data privacy as part of the organisation's policy and culture. HKBAC has fulfilled the five data protection measures set by the PCPD to be awarded the Gold Certificate, namely:

1. Have at least one Data Protection Officer or have established a dedicated department for data protection.
2. Have discussed matters relating to personal data privacy at the board of directors or at the highest decision-making level in the organisation in 2020.
3. Have stated in public the maximum retention period of any kind of personal data held by it.
4. Have put in place a data security breach notification mechanism and a written policy.
5. Have provided training or education for staff on personal data privacy protection.

Madonna Fung, General Manager of HKBAC, remarked, "Safety has always been the focus in all aspects HKBAC's operation, including the safety of the personal data of our customers and visitors. We are delighted to receive the first Privacy Friendly Awards Gold Certificate, which is a testament to our dedication to privacy protection and compliance with the Personal Data (Privacy) Ordinance. HKBAC will uphold our commitment in personal data privacy in the ever-changing, challenging digital landscape."
